The day will begin at the Kin Kin School of Arts Hall from 8am-10am for breakfast.

Then, between 10am and 2pm, the Kin Kin State School will host the next part of the day.

There will be the official opening of the Time Capsule, which was sealed 25 years ago, a museum display by the Noosa Museum, and tours of the school.

Friends can catch up for a chat about the old times at the Kin Kin Kid’s Kookaburra Kafe, which will be open for light refreshments.

After 2pm, we can wander down to the Kin Kin Country Life Hotel for some more talks down “Memory Lane”.

For more information, please phone 54 854 168, or contact us on 100yrs@kinkinss.eq.edu.au